

THE HARVARD CLASS OF 1960'S FIFTY-SEVENTH REUNION (WITH THE CLASSES OF 1959 AND 1961)

It was a dark and stormy day, a rule-breaking day. It never rains on Harvard Commencement, except when Mark Zuckerberg speaks.

The plucky group of alums from the classes of 1959, 1960 and 1961, dressed for a trans-Atlantic race, gathered at the Cambridge Boat club about 5:00 P.M. (May 25, 2017) for collations and a catered dinner.

There were about 60 in total; 28 from the distinguished class of 1960. The Boat Club is a wonderful venue, spacious and unique. We could not enjoy the porch on the river that evening, but we nonetheless enjoyed the view and chatting up friends, new and old.

Partygoers were surprised just how many of upper and lower classmates they actually knew those many years ago.

Friendships were renewed and started. We thank Bob Adams, Greg Downes and Fritz Donovan for the planning and for getting their classmates out in the storm.
