

HARVARD CLASS OF 1960 - FUTURE EVENTS

The International Museum of World War II in Natick, MA is the Harvard Class of 1960's destination on Friday, October 20, 2017 (the day of the 7:30 PM Harvard Crimson v. Princeton Tigers football game at the Stadium). Each of us will interact, aided by an Acoustiguide audio recording, with the most comprehensive collection of World War II artifacts, letters and documents in the world. More than 7,500 pieces are on display, integrating the human, political and military stories of the global war. It is an intense, emotional experience. Go to <https://museumofworldwar2.org/> for more information about the Museum. We will start promptly at 10:00 AM and, then, enjoy a light lunch at the Museum. Each visitor must sign a "release and waiver of liability" and present an ID. The all-inclusive cost is $35 per person. For more details and/or to make your reservation, contact Henry Marcy.
